

Cindy we have well we have been friends for a long time
nope we'll always will be Summer

Cindy
So I am the lucky one huh? The first person to sign this baby? Good luck this summer & don't get too fried okay. See ya next year & maybe we can party a little this summer.

Frenz,
Peresa
Cross

Cindy
I haven't been
ya for very long.
but I sure am glad to know ya.
hope ya have a super summer and hope to see ya next year

This was how we spent our years - - - At work and play - OUR BISON DAYS.

This year began

September 5, 1978, and ended June 8, 1979.

Seniors left May 31,
some earlier on January 26,

lucky . . .

180 days of knowledge

7 periods

each 55 minutes, 5 days a week

some boring

some exciting

some loved

some disliked

winning sometimes

losing sometimes

but always Bison

win or lose!

A year to remember -

look back if you dare

in 1989 when

time has called

you to account

at your 10 year

reunion.

Time may change the face

and dim the eyes,

but Bison love

is always young and alive.

Here we are - - -

aren't we cute?

(a terrible 'tritey' word)

Pretty? Beautiful?

Fat? Thin? Tall? Short?

(are these much better?)
 a representation of 4 million years of men's and women's development, according to Dr. Leakey.
 Brilliant? Stupid? Fast? Slow?
 a challenge to a challenger - challenger to the world
 and youth - that's us.
 challenger to ourselves (perhaps) sink - swim - rise - fall

fathers and mothers to be for the youth in tomorrow's schools,
 someone to come and fill
 our shoes
 and start again the cycle
 over and over and over-Happy, scared, confused
 to keep and laugh at what we cannot comprehend.

Lucky! That's some of us!
We made it early!
No gowns, no bands, no speeches-
Just diplomas . . .
That's what it's all about.

Mrs. Traber has worked on the scheduling department since 1961. She sets schedules up for the year and the grades. She prepares the whole master schedule. Mrs. Traber is going to get another job doesn't know what it is going to be. Some of her hobbies are working in the garden and making afghans. She really knows her job well and the computers are taking over her job. They are using this for new students. The Largent computer is better than other computers. She was very involved in the scheduling. She was needed a lot and everyone depended on her. She still jokes around. After so many years and they conduct computer labs to see what it is really like.

It was fun being in the same
I hope we have some more classes together.
so i can get to know ya better than i do now!

Remember this:
Allis ya need
is a little weed
to make a lot of that special weed party

I think your cute & you can get

YEAR IN PERSPECTIVE

- (1) Vickey Diedrich is wearing this years lace-up sandles and a rope net shawl.
- (2) Sherry Eigeman is modeling a cowl neck sweater and the ever popular jeans.
- (3) Sherry is showing that boats are the in-thing with this years jeans.

(1) Kim Bray models the cowl neck and plaid uppers with the jazz of corduroy and the old fashioned hiking boots.

(2) Sharla Simms models the loose Kaftan fit designed by herself.

(4) Mel Bowlen presents her leather boots with sheepskin uppers and a brushed corduroy blazer.

- (1) Michelle Hagfeldt displays the peasant-look.
- (2) Vickey Diedrich models this years slimmed down western style hat with notted pants and waist.
- (3) Melanie Bowlen models the full plaid skirt with a vest to match.

- (1) Brenda Miller in a aproned shirt dress with belted waist.
- (2) Kim Bray in this year's Gunne Sax.
- (3) Sherry Eigeman models the favorite dress wear—the belted jeans with a simple topper.

Movies of The Year

THE DUELLISTS: A chronicle of the feud that persists between two young officers in the Army of Napoleon throughout the period of the Napoleonic Wars.

MADO: Claude Sautet's subtle, compelling, neglected account of unrequited passion set against a background of business intrigue.

SUPERMAN: The year's most rousing, expansive and enjoyable spectacle, justified by the unerring performance of newcomer Christopher Reeve.

THE WIZ: Sidney Lumet's enchanting, transporting film version of the Broadway musical, a reworking of "The Wizard of Oz."

CASEY'S SHADOW: A family movie that is surprisingly stirring and a toughminded story about conflict within the family of an obscure horse trainer.

MOVIE MOVIE: Writers Larry Gelbart and Sheldon Keller astutely recall the conventions and cliches of Depression Era Hollywood.

I WANNA HOLD YOUR HAND: A satirical comedy about several rabid teen-aged fans' pursuit of The Beatles when they first appeared on the Ed Sullivan show.

DEAR INSPECTOR: A romantic comedy and murder mystery in several years.

WHO'LL STOP THE RAIN: A chase thriller, begins with the attempt of a demoralized war correspondent to smuggle two kilos of heroin out of Vietnam.

CITIZENS BAND: Graceful and good-hearted comedy of manners about the romantic dilemmas of several small-town Americans whose fantasy lives and repressed longings emerge under the anonymous cover of their CB radio transmissions.

BREAD AND CHOCOLATE: Four years late in arriving from Italy but one of the year's most satisfying and timely imports.

DONA FLOR AND HER TWO HUSBANDS: An intoxicating erotic weird comedy from Brazil, directed with joyous, humor and assurance.

Following titles also deserve mentioning:

"Hooper"
"Pretty Baby"
"An Unmarried Woman"
"The Buddy Holly Story"
"Who Is Killing The Great Chefs of Europe?"
"National Lampoon's Animal House"
"House Calls"
"Heaven Can Wait"
"Invasion of the Body Snatchers"
"The Last Waltz"

The Most Interesting BAD Movies—

Although they had a lackluster season, when Bison came up with three wins and one loss in the divisionals, sports writers were predicting a good showing in the state tournament. Such was not to be the case. While the divisionals saw some of the best basketball during the season, the state was a tougher condition when Bison couldn't overcome Missoula Spartans strong attack and finished 77-52. Loss of this game pitted Bison against Anaconda on Friday afternoon, but again bad luck dogged the team as the Copperheads edged Bison 53-50 in a loser out which sent the Bison home early. This latter game was Coach Gene Espeland's final effort since he had announced his retirement not only from coaching but from teaching as well, effective March 19, the Monday immediately following the tournament's end. State tourney winner this year was Bozeman, whose Hawks garnered the top spot for the second year in a row. CMR, Bison traditional rival, was second. As this issue of the Roundup went to press, no new head coach nor assistants had been named for the 1979-1980 season.

'78 Spring Music Awards

Jazz Workshop

Edwin "Buddy" Baker, jazz trombonist and music educator of Northern Colorado, Greeley, came to Great Falls January 4th and 5th to give tips and what to listen for in jazz and the fundamental aspects of the rhythm section during the two-day workshop held at Great Falls High School. This was the fifth annual workshop which 82 musicians from both city high schools and the four junior highs participated. Friday was devoted to jazz improvisation. Mr. Baker also held a special session for music educators.

Dear Cindy S,
 I have sat next to you
 all year in art and I feel that I can honestly say that you are one of the nicest girls I know. Design seems to be no problem to you but it sure takes you a long time to get something done - sort of like Richard P. - anyway, whatever you finish is sure nice. Have a great summer + fantastic 2 years at GFH. Hope to see you around.
 Love,
 Kim Ngura

(Cindy)
 The summer is just around the corner. Thank God. I'm just about ready for the great house. All in all it hasn't been too bad of a year. We sure forget everybody's worst moods.
 The worst thing was Mr. D's "Are you happy today?" and Kay, "I'm going to drink" God or what's better. Well besides rotten old office duty & rotten moods it wasn't too bad. With you & Belinda around there was always some excitement. Have a great summer and keep in touch.

 Forever
 Kim

Cindy, really been nice knowing ya.
 Maybe we'll see
 you when I come back from Alaska.
 Have fun partying
 this summer.
 I miss
 Cindy
